

Group Activity – Online Exhibits about Migration - due 5/1 by 9pm

This Week's Group Activity is based upon online exhibits about migration. You can choose to look over and post about either one of these two online exhibits about this week's course topic of Race, Ethnicity and Migration:

1. Jacob Lawrence “Migration Series” paintings about the Great Migration, Phillips Collection - <https://lawrencemigration.phillipscollection.org/the-migration-series>

- Read Introduction, About the artist and look over the 60 panel series. Click on the panels to get background information about the paintings.

OR

2. “Under One Roof” online exhibit about immigration and neighborhood change in the Lower East Side during the 1950’s, 1960’s and 1970’s, Tenement Museum -

<https://103orchard.tenement.org/stories/103-orchard/>

- Look over Overview: 103 Orchard, 1950’s: Lower East Side, 1960’s: Loisaida and 1970’s: Chinatown. Be sure to hover over images to also listen to audio interviews as you go through the exhibit for each decade.

Instructions:

- Closely review the images, text and available video within your chosen online exhibit.
- Choose two images that you believe captures the migration experience as depicted in the exhibit. Take photos or screenshots of these images.
- Post the two images in the Google Doc for your group. State why you chose these two images.
- Also comment on a post of one other group member

Enter your post in the Google Doc for your group (find your name listed below.) Remember that the group activities are graded for completion. This means that you get full credit if you complete it but I can't give credit if not done. I will take assignment by email if needed.
