

Essay 4: Implicit Bias

Listen to the Philosophy Bites Podcast: “Jennifer Saul on Implicit Bias” and then write an essay that answers the following questions. Be sure to engage with the information in the podcast in some way.

- What is implicit bias? What are some examples of implicit bias? Can you think of some examples that are not in the podcast?
- How can implicit biases be counteracted on an individual/personal level or societal/institutional level?

Format: Write a 1-2 page essay answering the questions above. You can think of this essay as a blog post—a more informal kind of writing where you are working out your thoughts and hope to share them with others. Your essay should be typed and double-spaced, use Times New Roman 12-point font, and is due in class as a hard copy on May 29th.
